DIY Fringe Chandelier

WHAT A
DE-LIGHT-FUL
THOUGHT!

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

To really make this fringe chandelier come together, I'm going to finish my look with a decorative ceiling moulding that will help give the lamp a beautiful vintage look. Not only is this chandelier going to look amazing, it's going to draw the eye and make a great conversation piece in her space.

Materials

- Lamp shade
- Awl
- Hammer
- Pliers
- Tin Snips
- Gold Spray Paint
- Waxed twine
- 12" and 8" embroidery hoops
- 4 yards of 6" chainette fringe
- Hot glue
- Glue gun
- Decorative Metal Trim

STEP 1-3

1. First up, source a lamp shade to act as your base. I gravitated towards using a retro light style, however you can use anything that has some kind of lip on it.

2. Using awl and hammer, poke 4 holes equal spaced around inside rim of lampshade

3. Using tin snips, cut the rim every 4 inches and use pliers to flatten rim... this will give you a flat surface to glue to later. If your lamp already has a flat rim, then move along to step 4!

Materials

1. Source the lampshade

2. Poke 4 holes around rim

3. Cut rim ever 4 inches to flatten rim

4. Get lampshade ready for paint

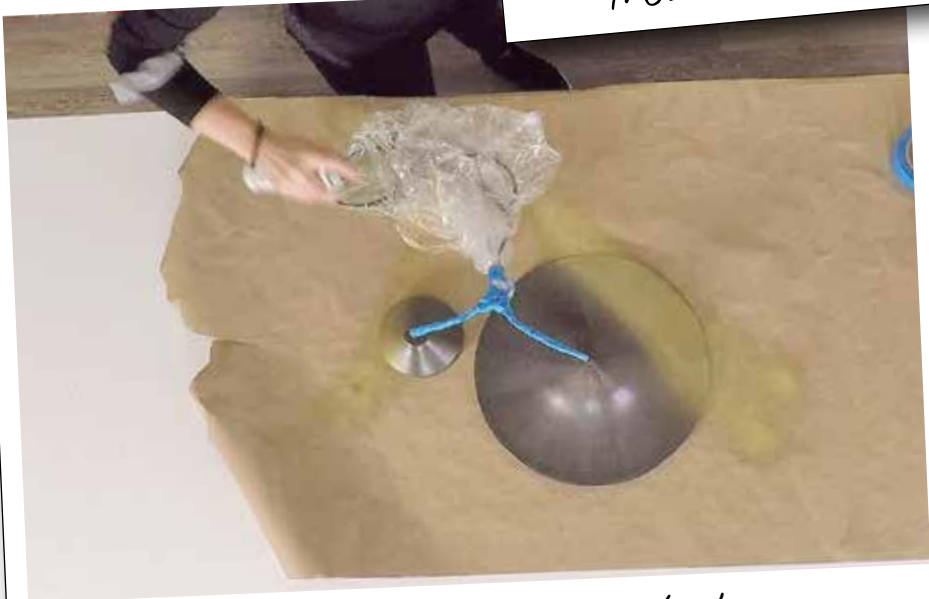

STEP 4-8

4. Tape and cover cord Spray paint outside of shade and ceiling base gold, 2-3 thin coats

5. Grab 2 embroidery hoops, you only need the inner hoops.

4. Cover cord before paint

4. Paint outside of lampshade and ceiling base

4. 2-3 thin coats of paint

6. Drill 4x equal spaced holes in the walls of each hoop using your thinnest bit

7. Cut 4x 18" approx lengths of black twine

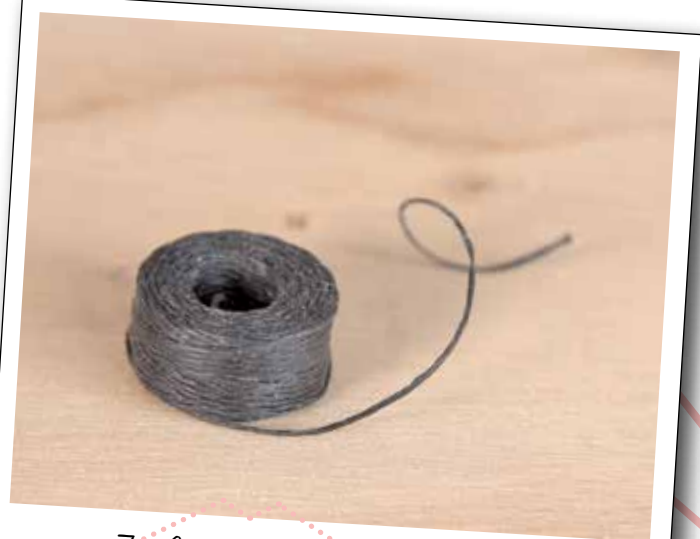

8. Thread and tie twine to holes in lampshade

5. 2 Embroidery hoops, only inner hoops

6. Drill 4 equal spaced holes

7. Cut 4x 18" black twine

8. Thread and tie twine in lampshade

STEP 9-15

9. Thread bigger embroidery hoop onto twine, looping twine to loosely secure

10. Adjust hoop until it's level and secure twine with knots

10. Adjust hoop until level, secure with knots

11. Repeat with smaller hoop so all three tiers are equal spaced. Trim any excess twine

12. Hot glue chainette fringe around each hoop and then glue to outside rim of lampshade

13. Hot glue decorative trim to outside layer of fringe covering any holes or seams for a clean finish

14. Hang light, use an led bulb to reduce heat, bulb should not come in contact with fringe

15. Glamazon level complete!

9. Thread bigger embroidery hoop onto twine

11. Repeat with smaller hoop

12. Hot glue chainette fringe

12. Repeat all the way up

13. Hot glue decorative trim

15. Let there be light!
