XENOPHILIUS CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS: A HISTORY

HISTORY

THERE ARE MANY UNIQUE CREATURES THAT THE QUIBBLER LIKES TO GO OVER, BUT THE MOST FASCINATING AND MOST MYSTERIOUS CREATURE THE QUIBBLER HAS EVER COVERED HAS TO BE THE CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACK. SINCE THE QUIBBLER HAD STARTED BACK IN 1989, I HAVE TRIED TO TRACE THIS CREATURE FROM WHERE IT IS FROM. THIS CREATURE IS VERY HARD TO FIND BUT I KNOW THAT IT EXIST OUT THERE. THE CRUMPLED - HORNED SNORKACK STORY HAS BEEN IN MY FAMILY FOR YEARS AND WAS FIRST SPOTTED BY MY GREAT-GREAT-GREAT GRANDFATHER WHEN HE TOOK A TRIP TO SWEDEN TO DISCOVER MORE MYSTICAL CREATURES OUT THERE. HE WAS A FAMOUS MAGIZOOLOGIST OF HIS TIME, DISCOVERING FAMOUS CREATURES AS THE GLUMPUS STORK AND SHELTEN FISH. AFTER DISCOVERING THE CREATURES OF NARGLES, WRACKSPURTS, HELIO PATHS, AND SLASHKILTERS, PEOPLE DID NOT BELIEVE HIM. HE HAS CONSIDERED THE CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACK AS HIS GREATEST DISCOVERY.

DISCOVERY

ON THIS TRIP, HE SET UP CAMP STROTTERMAIN LAKE. BY NIGHT HE HAD HEARD SOMETHING IN THE DARK AND STARTED TO FOLLOW IT. HE THEN DISCOVERED CRUMPLE-HORNED SNORKACKS. AFTER THE DISCOVERY, HE DECIDED TO STUDY THESE CREATURES FOR HALF A YEAR, UNTIL ONE DAY THEY MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED. IN HIS JOURNAL, HE DID RECORD WHAT THEY DID LOOK LIKE AND HOW THEY ACTED. FROM THAT DAY FORWARD, HE HAS NEVER SEEN A CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACK AGAIN AND VOWED TO RECORD ANYWHERE ABOUTS OF THEIR EXISTENCE. THIS IS WHERE THE STORY OF CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS BEGAN. AFTER TELLING PEOPLE ABOUT CRUMPLED - HORNED SNORKACKS, THERE WERE SOME ACCOUNTS OF PEOPLE WHO HAVE THINK THAT THEY HAVE SAWED THESE CREATURES FROM AFAR OR FROM UP CLOSE OR ATTACKED.

A VERY LARGE HORSE-LIKE CREATURE THAT HAS ONE MASSIVE HORN IN THE MIDDLE OF IT'S FOREHEAD. THIS CREATURE IS COMMONLY MISTAKEN AS A UNICORN AT FIRST GLANCE BUT IT DOES HAVE IT'S DISTINCTIVE FEATURES. LIKE FOR EXAMPLE, THE HORN IN ON THE FOREHEAD IS BUSHY LIKE A BRUSH AND HAS BUMPS ON IT GOING DOWN THE OUTER PART OF THE HORN. ANOTHER FACT ABOUT IT'S LOOKS IS THAT IT HAS PURPLE EYES. THESE EYES HAVE NO PUPILS. ANOTHER FEATURE THAT CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS HAVE IS THAT THEY HAVE LONG ELB-ISH TYPE BARS THAT ARE VERY LONG AND STREACHED OUT. THE LAST PHYSICAL DISTINCTION FEATURE THAT DIFFERS FROM A UNICORN IS THAT IT HAS A LONG THIN TAIL LIKE A LION'S TAIL. IT USES IT'S TAIL TO SWAG AWAY THE OTHER CREATURES DIFFERS WIDE. IT'S TAIL IS SIZED MALE LONGER.

THE MALE HAS A LONGER HORN AND HAS A TINY HORN GROWING ABOVE THE BIG HORN. FEMALES HAVE A SHORTER HORN AND HAS A BARE SWIRL NEAR THE REAR OF THE TAIL. WITH EVERY CREATURE, THERE IS A MATING CALL THAT IT USES TO ATTRACT THE OPPOSITE SEX. THE CALL LIKE A MIX AND A HORN. LOCATED IN SWEDEN AND SOME SECTIONS THESE BARE ANIMALS LIKE PLANTS AND ARE VERY HORNED SNORKACKS TWENTY AT A TIME. THEY MIGRATE TOWARDS THE SWEDEN WHEN THE WINTER SEASON COMES OR PLANTS OR WATER SOURCES HAS RUN OUT. CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS ARE LIKE ANY OTHER ANIMAL AND ARE VERY DEFENSIVE EITHER WHEN THEY FEEL THREATENED OR COMPETING FOR A MATE. THEY DO USE THEIR LARGE HORNS.

THE CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS ARE ROUGHLY 12 TO 15 FEET TALL AND 5 FEET BROADLY 3 FEET LONG ON AN ADULT AND EAR WIDTH IS ROUGHLY 12 INS. EVEN THOUGH THE SAME TYPE OF SPECIES, THERE ARE KEY DIFFERENCES BETWEEN A MALE AND FEMALE CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACK. LET'S START OUT WITH THE MALE.

SOUNDS BETWEEN A BIRD. THE SNORKACKS ARE AREAS OF NORTHERN FINLAND AND TO FEAST OFF OF THE FOND OF BERRY FRUITS. LIKE TO TRAVEL IN PACKS OF SOUTH SIDE OF SWEDEN WHEN THE WINTER SEASON COMES OR WHEN SHORTS OF PLANTS OR WATER SOURCES HAS RUN OUT. CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS ARE LIKE ANY OTHER ANIMAL AND ARE VERY DEFENSIVE EITHER WHEN THEY FEEL THREATENED OR COMPETING FOR A MATE. THEY DO USE THEIR LARGE HORNS.

NORWAY LOCAL

EYE WITNESS

OVER THE PAST 130 YEARS (MAYBE EVEN FURTHER BACK?) THERE HAVE BEEN OVER 12,000 CASES OF WHAT IS SUSPECTED TO BE CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACK CASES. THE EARLIEST AFTER MY GREAT-GREAT-GREAT GRANDFATHER DISCOVERED THEM WAS IN 1569, WHEN A PERSON BELIEVED TO HAVE SPOTTED WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN A CREATURE THAT COULD HAVE BEEN A CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACK. ACCORDING TO THE DAILY PROPHET NEWS AS IT BEING A "HORSE-LIKE" CREATURE WITH A GIANT HORN AND PURPLE EYES.' COULD THIS BE AN ACCOUNT OF A CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACK? ANOTHER STORY TOOK PLACE IN 1765, IN FINLAND WHERE A WOMAN STATED THAT HER CHILDREN WENT MISSING AFTER THEY TOLD HER THAT THEY HAD SPOTTED WHAT APPEARED TO BE A CREATURE WITH A "LION-LIKE" TAIL AND "HORSE-LIKE" BODY. THREE DAYS LATER, THE CHILDREN WERE FOUND SAFE BUT WITH STORIES OF INTERACTING WITH THESE CREATURES. COULD THIS BE AN ACTUAL CONTACT WITH A CRUMPLE HORNED SNORKACK? A LATER CASE WAS IN 1789 IN SWEDEN, A LOCAL FISHERMAN WAS SAILING INTO SHORE WHEN HE REPORTED TO 'SWEDISH MAGIC!' THAT HE HAD SAW A CREATURE WITH A MASSIVE HORN ON IT'S HEAD AND LARGE "ELF-LIKE" EARS DRINKING FROM THE LAKE. WHEN THE CREATURE LOOKED UP AT HIM, IT RAN AWAY. WAS THIS A WITNESS ACCOUNT?

CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS: A HISTORY

PERVERTED

THE USE OF THE HORNS IS ALSO USED TO DETERMINE THE ALPHA MALE OF THE GROUP. WHEN THE ELDER OR ALPHA MALE DIES, THERE IS AN ANIMAL LIKE COMPETITION TO DETERMINE WHO IS GOING TO BE THE ALPHA MALE OF THE GROUP. USUALLY TWO MALE SNORKACKS ARE CHOSEN AMONGST THE GROUP IN ORDER TO HAVE A COMPETITION OF THE HORNS. THEY CHARGE FROM EACH SIDE IN A FURIOUS BATTLE UNTIL ONE OF THEM EITHER SURRENDERS OR IS KILLED DURING THE FIGHT. THE WINNER OF THE BATTLE WILL BE CONSIDERED THE NEW LEADER OF THE TRAIL AND WILL LEAD THE WHOLE GROUP TO NEWER BREEDING GROUNDS AND PLANTATIONS. ALSO NOTED IS THE BIRTH OF A NEW CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACK. WHEN A NEW CRUMPLED - HORNED SNORKACK IS BORN, THEY ARE BORN WITH OUT THE MASSIVE HORN. THE DO STARTOUT WITH A STUB LIKE A NORMAL RHINO INFANT HAS BUT DOES GROW OVER TIME. ALSO NOTED IS WHEN YOUNG CRUMPLED - HORNED SNORKACKS ARE GOING UP THE YOUNG MALE SNORKACKS ARE TRAINED TO BE WARRIORS OF THE GROUP IN ORDER TO FEND OFF ANY PREY OR ENEMIES FROM HARASSING THE GROUP. THEY DO TAKE TURNS PRACTICING ON EACH OTHER TO GAIN MORE EXPERIENCE IN COMBAT. THEY ALSO RUB THEIR HORNS AGAINST TREES FOR SOME REASON. THERE IS NO EXPLANATION FOR THAT, BUT ONE COULD SAY THAT EITHER THEY MARK THEIR TERRITORY BY RUBBING THE BARK OFF OF THE TREES OR THEY ARE MAKING THEIR HORNS STRONGER BY DOING THIS. THE FEMALES WHEN THEY ARE YOUNG ARE TRAINED TO SCOUTS AND TO RAISE THE OTHER YOUNG CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS IN THE GROUP. EVEN WITH IT'S MIGHTY HORN, THERE ARE MANY ENEMIES THAT EAT CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS. ONE ENEMY IS THE GRAPPLER FISH. THE GRAPPLER FISH IS A GIANT FISH THAT USUALLY RESIDES NEAR THE OCEAN AND TEND TO EAT 30 POUNDS A DAY. THE GRAPPLER FISH DOES HAVE ARMS AND HANDS TO COME ON LAND AND GRAB PREY BUT USUALLY RESIDES IN THE WATER. THIS IS ONE OF THE MOST COMMON ENEMIES OF THE CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS. DUE TO THE WEIGHT OF MOST CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACKS, THEY ARE NOT VERY GOOD SWIMMERS AND ARE USUALLY CAUGHT BY GRAPPLER FISH REALLY EASILY. ALSO ANOTHER COMMON

REAL TRUTH

THESE ARE SOME STORIES THAT DO SUPPORT CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACK EXISTANCE, BUT WHERE THERE IS TRUTH, THERE ARE LIES....

IN 1834, A CHILD WHO WAS PRACTICING BROOM RIDING, SPOTTED WHAT WAS A CREATURE WITH LARGE EARS A LONG TAIL. HE DESCRIBED IT TO BE A FOUR LEGGED CREATURE AND STATED THERE WAS MORE THAN ONE OF THEM. THESE ARE SOME STORIES THAT DO SUPPORT CRUMPLE - HORNED SNORKACK EXISTANCE, BUT WHERE THERE IS TRUTH, THERE ARE LIES....

THE GREAT HOAX

IN 1456, A MAN IN SWEDEN STATED THAT HE HAD ACTUALLY CAPTURED A REAL LIVE CRUMPLE -HORNED SNORKACK. WORD SPREAD AMONGST THE TOWNS PEOPLE OF THIS DISCOVERY AND THE PEOPLE'S INTEREST GREW. THE MAN BROUGHT OUT THE CREATURE TO THE PUBLIC AND THE PEOPLE REACTED IN AWE. THE TOWN CELEBRATED IN DISCOVERY OF THE CREATURE AND THE MAN WAS REWARDED WITH LUXURY AND BECAME A TOWN HERO OF SORTS. EVERYTHING SEEMED GREAT UNTIL A FEW DAYS LATER IT WAS DISCOVERED THAT IT WAS JUST AN ORDINARY HORSE WITH AN ATTACHED HORN TO IT. THE MAN WAS RUN OUT OF THE TOWN AND WAS NEVER HEARD FROM AGAIN. THE TOWN'S PEOPLE FINALLY DECIDED THE CRUMPLE -HORNED SNORKACK DID NOT EXIST. WORD SPREAD FROM TOWN ABOUT THE MAN'S DEED AND IT SEEMS TO BE A UNIVERSAL AGREEMENT ABOUT THE CREATURE'S EXISTENCE. WHAT DON'T REALIZE IS THE FACT THAT MY GREAT-GREAT-GREAT GRANDFATHER SPENDS HIS TIME WITH THESE CREATURES AND HE HAS MULTIPLE JOURNALS WITH DETAILS ON THEM. I STILL BELIEVE THAT THEY DO EXIST AND THERE ARE OTHERS WHO BELIEVE AS WELL AND THOSE WHO SAW THEM. I HAD ATTACHED HIM IN THE FORREST. HE STATED TO HIM OF WHAT THE CREATURE WAS A GIANT HORSE-LIKE CREATURE WITH A HORN ON IT'S HEAD. I STATED TO HIM THAT IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN A CRUMPLE -HORNED SNORKACK AND WE WERE LOOKING FOR IT. HE STATED TO STAY AWAY FROM IT SAYING WHATEVER IT WAS AND KEPT RUNNING. MY DAUGHTER AND I WERE EXCITED THAT THERE MIGHT BE A POSSIBILITY OF ONE BEING CLOSE BY. SADLY, ON OUR TRIP, WE DID NOT SEE A SINGLE ONE. BUT THERE WAS EVIDENCE THAT THERE WERE SOME OUT THERE. ONE NIGHT IN THE FORREST, MY DAUGHTER WOKE UP TO HEAR A STRANGE NOISE COMING FROM THE FORREST. SHE HAD ALKED OUT OF THE TENT AND THOUGHT SHE SAW SOMETHING NEAR THE LAKE THAT WERE STAYING NEAR BY. THE FIGURE NEAR THE LAKE SAW MY DAUGHTER AND RAN OFF INTO THE FORREST. MY DAUGHTER TOLD ME ABOUT THIS THE NEXT DAY AND I WAS CONVINCED THAT IT COULD HAVE BEEN ONE OF THEM. ON THE LAST DAY OF THE TRIP, I THOUGHT I DID SEE SOMETHING NEAR THE WOODS OF A HORSE-LIKE CREATURE BUT IT SUDDENLY DISAPPEARED WHEN A MUGGLE CAR PASSED BY IT. THESE SPOTTINGS ARE MUCH EVIDENCE OF EXISTANCE.

Recent Sightings

IN THE SUMMER OF 1996, WHEN I ME MY DAUGHTER AND I WENT TO SWEDEN TO EN TO LOOK FOR THESE CREATURES. I RAN INTO A MAN WHO WAS RUNNING AWAY FROM THE FOREST, SHOUTING ABOUT SOME GIGANTIC CREATURE THAT HAD KILLED HIM IN THE FORREST. I ASKED HIM OF WHAT THE CREATURE MIGHT BE AND HE STATED THAT IT WAS A GIANT HORSE-LIKE CREATURE WITH A HORN ON IT'S HEAD. I STATED TO HIM THAT IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN A CRUMPLE -HORNED SNORKACK AND WE WERE LOOKING FOR IT. HE STATED TO STAY AWAY FROM IT SAYING WHATEVER IT WAS AND KEPT RUNNING. SNORKACKS HISTORY

REVEALED! Conclusion

SECRET PAST FINALLY

I STILL DO BELIEVE THAT THEY ARE SOMEWHERE THERE, I AM DETERMINED ENOUGH TO PROVE THAT THEY DO EXIST PREVIOUS AND CURRENT REPORTS ABOUT THESE CREATURES WHEREABOUTS. I KNOW MY GREAT-GREAT-GREAT GRANDFATHER WOULD BE PROUD OF MY WORK THAT I HAVE DONE TO PROVE THAT THESE CREATURES DO EXIST. HE WOULD ALSO BE PROUD OF HOW MY DAUGHTER NOT ONLY MIGHT HAVE SAW ONE BY WHAT CAREER CHOICE SHE HAD MADE AS A MAGIZOOLOGIST. SHE FOLLOWING IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF HER GREAT-GREAT-GREAT GRANDFATHER MAKES ME PROUD. HOPEFULLY SHE CAN FIND HARD EVIDENCE TO PROVE THAT THE CRUMPLE -HORNED SNORKACK DOES EXIST AND PROVE MY GREAT-GREAT-GREAT GRANDFATHER'S WORK RIGHT. THE CRUMPLE-HORNED SNORKACK IS A VERY MISUNDERSTOOD CREATURE AND VERY MYSTERIOUS CREATURE. THERE HAVE BEEN MANY SIGHTINGS OF THESE CERATURES AND MANY HAVE CLAIMED TO HAVE ENCOUNTERED THEM DURING TRIPS IN SCANDINAVIA. I WILL CONTINUE MY WORK OF CRUMPLE-HORNED SNORKACKS AND HAVE MORE AWARENESS OF THESE MYSTICAL CREATURES.

EVEN THOUGH I HAVE NOT SEEN A CRUMPLE-HORNED SNORKACK IN PERSON, I AM DETERMINED TO PROVE THAT THEY DO EXIST. I HAVE DECIDED TO DEDICATE MY LIFE TO PROVE THESE CREATURES. HOPEFULLY I CAN RECOVER THESE CREATURES AGAIN WITH THE EVIDENCE THAT I HAVE JUST EXPLAINED. SOMEONE PEOPLE WILL UNDERSTAND THAT THESE CREATURES DO EXIST. IF YOU DO FIND ANY EVIDENCE OF THESE CREATURES, I SUGGEST YOU DO GO AND LOOK FOR THEM. FINALLY TOLD!

MAN MARRIES GREAT SEA BEAST

WRITTEN BY
GUMPUS FLETCHER

On the evening of December 28, Rundulo Insolitis finally married his long time love for a sea creature known as a Each Uisge. Rundulo fell in love with this creature during a great storm in The North Sea. A local of Aberdeen, Scoland, a muggle and wizard village, Rundulo kept distance from his love because he states "he was shy at first, but eventually got courage enough to ask." After many occasions with the beast, Rundulo felt that he and the Each Uisge were growing close.

Rundulo was a magiczoologist who was on an adventure for this Scottish Mythic beast. He stated that he found the subject of the beast as a interest of study and eventually set off to find one. He stated that he has searched the high seas of Scotland and Ireland but did not find one. Eventually during a very stormy night, he had found one out at sea.

Rundulo states, "It was love at first sight. We both looked at each other for a moment and I slowly approached it. Usually these creatures take form, but this one was in it's natural state." He continues to say that the Each uisge didn't attack him at all or tried to attack him. It seem to be "fond" of him. Eventually, Rundulo had courage to have the Each uisge accept it's hand in marriage.

According to Scottish and Ireland folklore, a Each Uisge (also known as a Aughisky in Ireland folklore) is a supernatural water horse that is also a shapeshifter. A Each Uisge is considered one of the most dangerous water-dwelling creature in the British Isles. It is similar to a Kelpie, another Irish water horse, but instead of staying in rivers and streams, Each Uisge are located in lochs, seas, and oceans. In it's natural form, it has the body of a man and a head of a horse.

It takes to different forms, the first one is of a horse where it will go on land and have a rider. Once near water, the Each Usge, sticks the rider to it's body and drowns him in the water and consumes him whole. The other form is of a handsome man and can be recognised as a mythological creature only by the water weeds in its hair. It lures it's victim into the water.

Rundulo had set up his marriage in his local town in Aberdeen, but the locals were fearful and disappointed. When interviewed a local town woman, she stated that it was a disgrace to may such a vicious creature. Another man stated that, "He should be ashamed of himself. It's not natural nor will I accept his marriage. What is next? Are we going to marry our pets?" Our final interview was with a town woman who was concerned with the dangerous creature. She stated, "That is a vicious creature. What about our children. I'm not going to let my children play near that thing."

Rundulo did understand that the towns people would not approve of his marriage. "I know it will be difficult to accept what I have chose, but I feel that the two of us were meant to be together."

The marriage was an outside wedding near the North Sea, local villagers kept distace in fear and discuss. The ceremony was one hour and done by a local priest who had accepted their marriage.

After the ceremony was finished, we asked the newly wedded couple of of how they felt. Rundulo stated that this was the greatest day of his life.

A few days after the ceremony, we contacted Rundulo to know how he was doing. W found out later that he had moved out of Aberdeen due to the towns people upset with his marriage to the Each Usge. Wherever Rundulo is, we wish him the best of luck and congratulations on his newly married Each Usge.

THE GREAT BEYOND!

The Quibbler's Monthly Horiscope

Written by Sybill Trelawney & Luna Scamander

Aries (Mar 21 - Apr 19)

Your month will be filled with many surprises that will be appearing just around the corner. When will they come, it will be soon. But mostly, be patient with yourself and keep your hands to yourself as well.

Taurus (Apr 20 - May 21)

Stubborn as you maybe, sometimes you have to listen to those who think it is wise not to try some particular dangerous or unsure things. Also be sure to practice kindness, not random kindness, just kindness in general.

Gemini (May 21 - Jun 20)

Beware this month. This month you will mix up what you are trying to think and say. This is due to a cause done by Wrapsurts that are making your brain fuzzy. Be sure to use lots of Wrapsurt repellent. Also be sure to keep watch on your shoes.

Cancer (Jun 21 - Jul 22)

This will be a very uneasy month for you. You will feel pretty much paranoid as if someone is following you at every moment, but really it is just guilt from previous events you have done.

Leo (Jul 23 - Aug 22)

This month will feel bold. You will go and try something you have never tried before. It will also be where you will believe in what your heart says instead of your gut feeling.

Virgo (Aug 23 - Sep 23)

You will feel miserable about yourself, but it's not really your fault. Everyone makes mistakes. Pick yourself up.

Libra (Sep 24 - Oct 23)

This will be the month where the one thing you have wished will come true. It may come in a small package unlike the big package you wanted it to be in. Be sure to keep an eye on your surroundings. You might miss it.

Scorpius (Oct 24 - Nov 22)

This month will not be your greatest month, but you must believe in yourself. It might seem like a case of Loser's Lurgy, but it's not. Be not afraid to ask for a helping hand when the light seems dark.

Sagittarius (Nov 23 - Dec 21)

This month will be a very busy month for you. Even though the amount of work seems to pile up each second, you have to remember that after all the work is finally done, it will be working all of your hard work.

Capricorn (Dec 22 - Jan 20)

This month you will feel a heartwarming joy. This is because you feel loved. You might find someone, some new activity you enjoy, but mostly it is due to you feeling good about just being yourself.

Aquarius (Jan 21 - Feb 19)

Your head is full of ideas and a vast field represents your dreams. The smell of flowers represents great opportunity. Be sure to enjoy dance in the vast field of flowers.

Pisces (Feb 20 - Mar 20)

Open yourself up to others to see your hidden talents you have been keeping. One may find them very fascinating.

MY DAY WITH A MUGGLE

● WRITTEN BY Arthur Weasley ●

I ARRIVED ON A DRIZZLY MORNING ON THE EAST SIDE OF ANDERS STREET. WE MET IN THE LONDON WHERE I WAS FORCED TO TAKE A MUGGLE BUS SINCE THE FLOO POWDER FIREPLACES WERE UNDER CONSTRUCTION. WHEN I ENTERED THE BUS, I HAD FORGOTTEN THAT I HAD TO PAY IN "MUGGLE MONEY". I DIDN'T HAVE ANY ON ME AND I STARTED TO GET WORRIED. THANKFULLY, A WOMAN WAS VERY KIND TO OFFER ME SOME MONEY FOR MY TRIP. I SAT DOWN NEXT TO HER. WE BOTH INTRODUCED OURSELVES AND STARTED WITH A LITTLE SMALL TALK. I LEARNED THAT HER NAME WAS JOANNE AND SHE WAS A SINGLE MOTHER. SHE WORKED IN A SMALL BAKERY THAT WAS PART OF HER FAMILY'S HERITAGE.

DURING THE TALK, I HAD CONFESSED TO HER THAT I WASN'T REALLY USE TO THE EVERYDAY THINGS THAT SHE WAS USED TO. SHE INSISTED THAT I COME OVER FOR TEA SOMETIME AND HANDED ME AN ADDRESS AND A NUMBER TO CONTACT HER BY. SHE WAS WILLING TO EXPLAIN THINGS THAT I WASN'T REALLY FAMILIAR WITH. WE BOTH SAID GOOD BYE AND WENT OUR SEPARATE PATHS.

AFTER THINKING ABOUT IT, I DECIDED TO CONTACT HER WITH THE USE OF THE NUMBER SHE GAVE ME. I KNEW IT WOULD BE DIFFICULT SINCE I'VE NEVER USED A MUGGLE PHONE (MY SON HAD PREVIOUS EXPERIENCES WITH IT), BUT I EVENTUALLY FIGURED IT OUT. CONFUSING LITTLE BUGGER. WE SET UP AN ARRANGEMENT AND I WAS ON MY WAY TO HER HOUSEHOLD.

HER HOUSE WAS FASCINATING, AND TO BE HONEST, GORGEOUS. THERE WAS ALL SORTS OF FURNITURE MADE FROM WOOD AND STONE AND DIFFERENT TYPES OF

Facts About Muggles:

- Muggle cars tend to run on a liquid called "gasoline."
- Muggles have these things called "dishwashers" to clean their dishes.
- Most muggles believe that "magic" is a form of entertainment and that real magic does not exist.
- Muggles use "aeroplanes" to fly instead of brooms.

THERE WOULD BE A REACTION OR NOT AND TO SEE HOW THEY WORKED WITHOUT MAGIC. I FELT LIKE A KID IN A CANDYSTORE.

I LOOKED UP AT THE WALL,

SEEING ALL THE PICTURES OF HER FAMILY AND FRIENDS, BUT THEY WERE NOT MOVING. I WAS WONDERING IF THERE WAS SOMETHING WRONG WITH THE CAMERA THAT THEY USED OR IF MUGGLE CAMERAS ONLY TAKE STILL FRAMES. I DIDN'T STAY ON THIS SUBJECT BECAUSE

THERE WERE MANY OTHER THINGS TO EXPLORE. I FOLLOWED HER TO THE KITCHEN WHERE IT SEEMED ORDINARY UNTIL SHE SHOWED ME THIS THING CALLED A "DISHWASHER". SHE TOLD ME THAT IT WILL CLEAN THE DISHES FOR YOU INSTEAD OF DOING IT THE OLD WAY OF HAND WASHING THEM. WHAT SHE SAID JUST BAFFLED ME. WE SAT DOWN AND I JUST

PLANTS, THOUGH NOT TOO EXOTIC. THERE WERE ALL SORTS OF ITEMS AND OBJECTS THAT I HAVE NEVER REALLY SEEN BEFORE. I JUST WANTED TO TOUCH THEM ALL TO SEE IF

Muggle Items:

- After many years of research and study I have concluded that the Rubber Duck will forever remain a mystery.
- Muggles have this type of communication called "The Web" that has nothing to do with spiderwebs.
- There is thing called a "blender" where it will take any type of food item and just turn it into a liquid type form.

WRITER'S BIO: Arthur Weasley
A family man of 8, Arthur Weasley is a firm believer of Muggle & Magic people equality. He currently works for the Ministry of Magic. He contributes to The Quibbler due to "limitations" when he submitted articles for Prophet.

STARTED ASKING SO MANY QUESTIONS LIKE: "WHAT DOES A TOASTER DO?", "ARE THERE MORE TYPES OF TRANSPORT BESIDES CARS, BUSES, & TRAINS", "ARE THERE MORE THAN TWO TYPES OF COMMUNICATIONS BESIDES MAIL AND PHONE?" AND "WHAT IS THE FUNCTION OF A RUBBER DUCK?". SHE SEEMED CONFUSED AT MY QUESTIONS, BUT SHE WAS WILLING TO ANSWER THEM WITH GREAT DETAILS.

I WAS VERY EXCITED AND FASCINATED WITH HER WAY OF LIVING, BUT SADLY I HAD TO LEAVE BECAUSE IT WAS GETTING LATE. TIME DOES FLY WHEN YOU ARE LEARNING SOMETHING NEW AND FASCINATING. THEN I REALIZED WHAT I HAD DONE. DURING MY CONVERSATION WITH HER,

I REMEMBER TELLING HER A FEW THINGS THAT WOULD REVEAL THE WIZARD WORLD. I WENT TO THE RESTROOM AND I STARTED PLANNING. AFTER I CONVINCED MYSELF, I WENT BACK DOWN WHERE SHE WAS DRINKING HER TEA. I TOOK OUT ... SLOWLY AND QUIETLY POINTED WHILE HER BACK WAS TURNED AND DID AN OBLIVIATE SPELL. I WALKED OUT OF HER HOUSE SLOWLY AND WAS SADDENED OF WHAT I HAD DONE, BUT I KNEW IT WAS FOR THE GREATER GOOD. I HAD A WONDERFUL TIME WITH JOANNE AND WILL NEVER FORGET MY INTERACTIONS WITH A MUGGLE.

ARE SLASHKILTERS

☿ ☽ ☾ ☿ DANGEROUS? ☽ ☾ ☿ ☽

YES

NO

The Slashkilter is definitely a dangerous animal. There have been a total of 15 attacks every single year from wizards to even muggles. These things are rumored to be bodyguards of high-end, very powerful people.

For example, Cornelious Fudge--the previous head of The Ministry and people like the Assistant Editor of The Daily Prophet, Captain of the USA Quidditch Team and the head of the Dumstrang Wizard Institute have all owned or are suspected of owning these vicious creatures. These people are not to be trusted and neither should the "pets" they own. These animals are trained to kill and should be considered dangerous. It's in their blood to be killers. That is why these animals are dangerous and should be avoided.

The Umgubular Slashkilter is a very mysterious magical creature that few know about or even own. Some claim that these creatures attack people on sight. Others state that they are gential creatures that means no harm.

The Slashkilter is definitely not a dangerous animal, it's just misunderstood. The Slashkilter, like any other animal, attacks people only when provoked.

Slashkilters are gential, peaceful loving creatures that are a part of nature and should be left alone. According to many current owners they are respectable animals that are loyal to their master and would not even hurt a Nargle or even a Gnome. Maybe wild ones may be vicious, but home-raised ones are gentle giants. We must not look at their characteristics on the outside, but on the inside. They may have come from ferocious, legendary creatures that plagued the land, but that is a thing of the past and they are now well-trained house pets. That is why these creatures are not dangerous.

MOON FROGS: SECRETS & SCANDALS

Written by Weltous Zarcos

THIS MONTH IN HISTORY

Moon Frogs: mysterious and rare. As you know, Moon Frogs of course, do live on the Moon. They are like Earth frogs, but jump extremely higher than the average frog. They are gray-colored to blend in with their environment. Moon Frogs were discovered by a wizard by the name of Enkaus Gadtul. He used a Cleansweep Six to go to the Moon and brought back a bag full of them. Moon Frogs have great value because of how hard of it is to get them, and no one really knows about them, even with the frogs brought back by Enkaus. It is rumored that the richest wizards and witches possess Moon Frogs. But even with it's great value and rarity, rumor has it that Moon Frogs can cause bad luck as well. This has been traced back to it's original discovery. When Enkaus brought back Moon Frogs, he was hospitalized with an unknown sickness, causing him to be in St. Mungo's for several months, though he eventually recovered.

Another "Moon Frog Bad Luck" story was when Darsel Wendelow, the richest witch in the world owning one, suddenly went bankrupt, her husband leaving her, and her only child dying of unknown causes. She currently lives in poverty, but still keeps the Moon Frog because she thinks it's worth more. There have been many rumors of the use of Moon Frogs to cause devastation to others as well. During the term of 1408, The Ministry of Magic's Minister stepped down because of a scandal involving the usage of "borrowed" Gringotts money for self purposes. Few days prior to the incident, to the incident, the Minister was given a frog as a gift for signing a bill to cut taxes on Middle Class Wizards. It is well known that the vice minister wanted to be head of the Ministry of Magic and disagreed with alot of the Minister's ideas. Could this be a plot from the vice minister to gain power? If you ever encounter a Moon Frog. Stay way from it. It might bring you bad luck.

UKRANIAN IRON BELLY EATS OWN OWNER

WRITTEN BY YULANDA EARNHEART

In Saturday the 25th, it was reported that Curtus Flangard was missing from his home. A few days later, it was discovered that his pet Ukranian Iron Belly had eaten him. Curtus Flangard owned a farm with his wife, Darcy, where they raised different types of unique animals from Wrapsurts to Hungarian Horntails. According to his wife, one night he went out to feed the animals on the farm and never returned. She then went on to state that after those three days, she went out to the barn where they kept their dragons and they had discovered that her husband is missing. She asked her neighbors to where her husband had went, but they told her that they didn't know. So eventually, they assembled a search party to look for him. During the search, they did find a shoe belonging to her husband near the Ukranian Iron Belly Dragon. The participants looking for him have concluded that he was eaten by the dragon. When asked about if she had thought of anything suspicious about that night, she did in fact hear something like a scream or a type of yelling sound, but thought it was one of the animals again. When we interviewed one of the people on the search team, he said, "Well we all know Curtus's wife, Darcy. She's not one of the brightest potions on the self." Curtus's funeral will be held on February 3rd, at the Hawkstone Graveyard in Newry, Northern Ireland. As for the Ukranian Iron Belly, it has been sent to Zhytomyr, Ukraine to The Ukranian Dragon Den, where it will be kept until further notice.

BOY RESCUED FROM WELL AGAIN

Recently, near Portee Scotland, an 8-year-old Muggle boy was trapped in a small river well for the second time this year. The boy was eventually rescued when the local farm dog had warned the town villagers about him. The boy was pulled from the well with the help of the villagers. When interviewed, he stated that he went out to retrieve water from the well when he accidentally tripped. The father of the boy said, "We like to thank the village for rescuing our son, but we mostly thank the dog for warning all of us." The father further stated that he will not let his son near the well again.

2 Girls Save Local Library

The town of Anderbec, Ireland can thank 7-year-old Anne McEnderson and 12-year-old Francis Wenderman for starting a charity drive to help save the small town library from being shut down due to the current budget crisis in Anderbec. The girls stated, "We have been going to this library since we were really little. It would have been a shame to see it go." The charity drive has raised enough to not only save the library, but make minor improvements as well.

3 Workers Arrested for Theft of Major Store

On Thursday, three workers of a Muggle store called "Tesco" were caught stealing an item called a "Television" at 5 A.M. The Muggle Police had entered the three suspects' homes to find several hundred pieces of clothing, over 1000 items of canned and boxed foods and drinks, over 50 television sets, 70 phones and much more. The police stated that they have been doing this for several years and will be charged. The police have not yet released their names or any additional information.

MAN DISCOVERS HIDDEN FORTUNE

Jacob Kenner, a local of Hampshire, England, has recently found a hidden stash of money in his own backyard. Jacob explained that both of his kids were playing in the backyard with shovels to dig to the center of the Earth. During the digging, one of his kids had hit a hidden box filled with Muggle money. The boy told his father about his discovery. Jacob was shocked at what his son found. Apparently to his family history, his son found the hidden stash of his Great great grandfaher, who didn't trust the banks at the time. He had buried it somewhere. Jacob has stated that he will use the funding to raise his family and save most of the funds for his kids education.

"There's No Such Thing as Magic" says Scientist

Recently, in an interview with Muggle News BBC, Harvy Stocher, a Muggle Scientist stated that there is no such thing as "Magic" and that "those things would be nearly impossible to exist and there needs to be scientific proof." After the interview, we asked a few things on why magic does not exist and he states, "Magic is just a trick or slight of hand. Real Magic does not exist." After he had left, one of our staff members made his car disappear in front of his eyes.

Muggle Fortune Teller Revealed to be Fraud

It has been recently revealed that the once famous "Fortune Teller" Madam Coulden has turned out to be a fraud all along. It was revealed when one client gave false information and admitted that he was lying afterwards on a Muggle Television "Talk Show". She has stated that she did want to have an acting career, but failed to catch any roles. She had a job that did not pay enough, so to make enough money to pay her rent, she put on the "Madam Coulden" act. Many fans of Madam Coulden have written to her in anger over the great revelation. One frequent customer has considered it "A great disappointment."

1 WOMAN'S DREAM HAS COME TRUE

On recent Muggle Television, Meghan Gunthersen has won a singing contest show called, "The Next Singing Sensation." She stated that, "This is a dream come true to me. I had never thought I would go this far." Host Brian Denheart stated that her singing was "Brilliant." Currently, Meghan's first album "Just Meghan" will be appearing in stores in June 3rd.

0 % Approval of New Currency Designs.

In a recent public pole for the new British Muggle Money designs, 0% of those who had voted approve of the new looks. A few days prior, the new modern design was revealed to the public and asked for them to vote on if they should change the designs. One man was willing to interview with us. He says, "Just leave the old designs alone. There's nothing wrong with it."

Kenmare Kestrels' Chaser Blames Wrapsurts for Poor Performance

 few days ago, the 337th Annual British-Irish Regional League Cup officially began. To start, the first lineup match was between The Holyhead Harpies and The Kenmare Kestrels. The match started off great with a strong defense from the Kenmare Kestrels and a great offense from The Holyhead Harpies. The match ended with a devastating loss of the Kenmare Kestrels 160 to 10. Grendel Tubberman, Chaser for 2 years and a frequent reader of The Quibbler, stated in an post game interview that she blames Wrapsurts of the loss of the team. She has stated that her head felt fuzzy and she really could not concentrate on the game. Others have advised her that it might just be a headache or it could be that she must be sick or something, but she tells them it is definitely Wrapsurts flying around her head to make her brain fuzzy. While some on the team believe that it is Wrapsurts, others say that Grendel is making the whole thing up.

Wendon Kangersburg, Team Captain of the Kenmare Kestrels, is one of those people. He says, "She reads that rubbish just to make herself feel better. It's really just a headache and she'll be fine." Grendel has stated she'll do better in the Loser's round.

SQUIB ADAPTS BOY WHO LIVED STORY FOR MUGGLES

It was a sunny afternoon on a Sunday, I had finished doing last minute tweaking to my interview when she walked into the office. I was so delighted to meet her for the first time, but I had to act professional. We both sat down and after a few minutes of preparation we began the interview. J.K. Rowling, famous Squib Author of the Wizarding World who had previously written famous books such as "The Wizard's Book", "The Tales of Sirius Black", an Updated version of "The Tales of Beedle the Bard" and currently writing the "Wizard's Guide to Life", has done a giant step in her career and made an adaption of the most famous story ever told about The Boy Who Lived: Harry Potter for Muggles. I asked her the question that was on everyone's mind: Why? She responded, "It is a fascinating tale of courage, friendship, honor and most importantly love. I believe that these virtues and lessons that this boy has presented could be looked upon by wizards and muggles alike. It's a great adventure tale as well with twist and turns at every corner."

I was fascinated with her response. Such an amazing story could be shared with wizards and muggles alike? I then asked her about her meeting with Harry, who is now grown up with a family of four, to tell his side of his story. She was very excited to tell about this. "When I confronted Harry for the first time, I felt a peace within the look of his eyes even though he has been through so much. I was introduced to his family. He has two lovely sons. James, the oldest, looks a lot like his father. Albus Severus. His daughter, Lily, is so cute. Then I was introduced to his wife Ginny, former Quidditch player for The Holyhead Harpies and now a Quidditch Correspondent for The Daily Prophet, she seems like a loving mother. Harry did show me a brief tour of the house and offered me tea. When we settled down, we began to start talking about his fight with the Basalisk, his first encounter with his parents, me maraculous and how he had stories about saved the school The Triwizard numerous times Tournament, right after another. He his participation also talked about how he in Quidditch, met his friends and his love."

JK. Rowling went on further to explain how Harry's life has changed over the years at Hogwarts and after Hogwarts. She said that Harry currently an Auror for The Ministry of Magic and has settled down after so much has happened to him. I asked her about any limitations of the books since it is going out towards a Muggle audience. In her words, she stated, "If this is going to be a great story about the events of this boy, I believe that details with the story should not be tampered with."

While J.K. Rowling believes that the story should not be tampered with, there are those who disagree. After the news spread of how J.K. was going to publish the story towards Muggles, there was flack pertaining to the content of the story and the revealing parts of the Wizarding World. Renee Quadlemam, Senior Member of The Ministry of Magic, stated that "This is a disgrace to wizards and witches alike. This person is a threat to the Wizarding world. She will be breaking parts of the International Statute of Wizarding Secrecy by publishing these books. She must be stopped at once."

Others say that she is doing the right thing. Delvon Yersbe, another Senior Member of The Ministry of Magic stated, "Muggles are very fascinating people indeed. It really is a great story to tell and I believe that Muggles should read these stories. They really don't know that these places exist due to Anti-Muggle Magic and they will also be putting these books instead of under "Biography", under 'Fiction' or 'Fantasy'. There really is nothing to worry about." Not only is the Wizarding World was spit, but the

An INTERVIEW WITH Written by Yulanda Earheart J.K. ROWLING

Muggle World was split as well.

When the news spread of these books coming out, there was an uproar over the content of the books. There are those who believed that these books did indeed teach Muggle magic. There are other reasons as well such as the evils of War, the conservative objections to liberal and socialist values, even conservative and sexist values and subversive and anarchistic messages. J.K. has denied these things and states, "I believe that some people do look into these stories way too seriously." She did however did confess that the story did teach about the value of Love, friendship and loyalty.

The Harry Potter books were divided into 7 stories of The Boy Who Lived. I had asked her on why seven books. She has stated, "It represents the 7 years of Harry going to Hogwarts and 7 years that Harry has in contact with Lord Voldemort. Also the number 7 does play a key role throughout the whole series."

During our discussion, she had stated that the books have been translated in over 67 languages and in over 148 countries. It also seems since the books have been released, there has been a fan following not only in the Muggle World, but in the Wizarding World as well. J.K. Rowling did explain, "Even though the story is already made famous in the Wizarding World, it got more popular after I wrote the biography for Harry. Harry was surprised to see the reaction. He knew he was known as the boy who lived, but he got more famous after his story was explained for his years at Hogwarts. He has told me that he has been receiving an endless number of letters and enjoys reading them as well." She then explains the fans of the Muggle world. "Well it has really grown in popularity with fans of Muggles. During the book releases, they did stand out in rain, snow, and hail just to get their copy of the book. They also do dress up in home made Hogwarts robes and have self-made glasses. It's really a sight to see." It did baffle me when she did explain about Muggles standing in the rain just for a book but I can tell that the Muggle fans do not care.

With the popularity of the books for Muggles, there has been a rumor that Muggles are or have made an adaption of the books themselves into a thing called a movie(s). I asked J.K. about these movies. "Well after the books became popular, directors (people who make these things called 'films') and asked if they can make movies for these. After I got in contact with Harry, he was glad to adapt the movie into movies."

"Currently, the Muggle movies have split the last book into two films and are going to release the last one in July. Hopefully the film will be shown to wizards soon. A few Wizards and witches have told me they went into the Muggle world in order to see it for themselves. They do enjoy it."

The success of the Harry Potter books and "films" has brought a common interest between the Wizarding World and the Muggle World. I did ask J.K. on what she plans to do next. She states, "I really don't know at the moment. I'm probably going back to a local tea shop and start writing while blended into the crowd." We will be keeping an eye out for her next work. The Harry Potter books are now available at any Wizard and Muggle book store across many nations wide.

ASK THE QUIBBLER

Written by Xenophilus Lovegood and Luna Scamander

This is the section where The Quibbler answers your feedback. This includes, subscriber suggestions, article questioning, fan feedback appreciation, and also personal questions about the staff. We are happy to answer all of your questions!

Why did you change from being a Weekly Magazine to a Monthly Magazine?

- Marstow Rendtel Cornwall, England, United Kingdom

Well Marstow, we at The Quibbler decided it is much easier to make a Monthly magazine than a weekly magazine. Sure there are headline breaking news every single day that needs to be covered, but personally I am not the eager young reporter that I use to be back then in 1989. I felt it would make it easier for me and the staff. Plus it helps me never run out of stories (unlike back then when I struggled to fill up a 30 page magazine every week) and it saves you money as well.

-Xenophilus Lovegood

My mother says that there is no such things as Crumple-Horned Snorkacks. And wants me o stop reading The Quibbler, but I don't want to unsubscribe I love your stories. Could you please help me out?

- Hannah Gourdevon, Armagh, Northern Ireland

I'm dearly sorry to hear that your mother doesn't believe in the Crumple-Horned Snorkack. If I ever did meet your mother, I would prove that Crumple-Horned Snorkacks DO EXIST! I onced owned a horn from an actual Crumple-Horned Snorkack, but sadly it exploded. We are still waiting for it to regenerate itself. Currently I am in possession of my Great-Great Grandfather's Journal which tells amazing stories of his interactions with them. Tell your mother to read this issue. It will prove her wrong.

-Xenophilus Lovegood

Dear Luna,

I am such a huge fan of yours. I love all of your work that you have done to as a Magizologist and your articles on The Quibbler. I know that this is late, but congratulations on your marriage to Rolf Scamander!

- Wendy Flurubson, Cork, Ireland

Dear Wendy,

I am glad you like my work. It is fun discovering new animals all over with Rolf. And it's never too late to say that. Thank you.

- Luna Scamander

Hello, I am currently a farmer in England and I have to say thank you so much on your recipe on your Anti-Nargle Spray for Mistletoes. I had them infest my mistletoe crop previous years, but thanks to you. I can grow Mistletoe in peace.

- Fredric Overmier, Copedock, Suffolk, England, UK
Nargles are a vory pesky buch of critters. I am glad that we were able to help with your situation.

- Xenophilus Lovegood

Dear Luna,

I am currently studying to be a Magzologist just like you, do you have any advice for me?

- Christopher Asposte, Appleby, North Lincolnshire, England, UK

Well Christopher, probably the best advice that I can give you is believe in what you believe because some will not believe you.

- Luna Scamander

I am a frequent reader of The Quibbler and I have introduced it to many of my friends and they love it!

- Julie Dessmert London, England, UK

I am glad that you are spreading the word on The Quibbler. Thanks Julie!

WE ARE MA AND WHAT ELSE IS OUT THERE?

Space: a very vast place. A vast place filled with mystery and adventure. I stare up at the stars at night and it makes me ask questions to myself like: What's out there? How am I a part of all of this? Are we alone? Spending my nights on a hill staring up into it and makes me think.

I have finally come up with a conclusion to all of my answers and that is: We are made of Stars.

I believe that this is the answer. There are several different ways of interpreting this idea and I'll explain it in three ways.

1 The first way is that we our selves are like a little universe. We are made up of many things that serve their own functions. Also those things could be considered separate universes as well since they are made up of many more things as well. It's kind of like we are a universe of universes. Like for example, you digestive system is a part of a universe, and the digestive system is made up of smaller parts that create and function the digestive system. In General, We are really complex like the universe. The only difference between us and the universe is that we do not span on forever. Now for point number two.

2 Point number two is probably simpler to explain than point number one. For point number two, we are like a star ourselves. This can come in many different ways. We want to be famous like a star, or we are like a star and the Earth is like a universe.

The first point we could become famous like a star. Take the whole human race as a universe, there are those that we focus on all the time. Those would be considered the brightest stars in the universe and there are those who are starting to become bright and we start to focus on them. We would call those upcoming stars. Then there are those who imagine the world as like a universe itself. It's big. It's filled with many different types of things. we are like a star in the universe. We each are unique and shine bright with our talents.

There are over a billion people in the world. That means that there are a billion unique people out there. In general, we are like a star and the world is like a universe. Now on to my last and final point.

3 The last point is that we are made of star stuff. Since everything in the universe seems to be made out of the same things. I believe that everything is related to each other. That is why I believe that we are made of star stuff.

DE OF STARS

BY MARRUS PHELTIN

I always wondered: what's out there? Are there people like us? I do dream of what's out there sometimes. Lucky, I do work for The Quibbler and we have been receiving stories that would make me think that there are things out there.

The first thing of evidence of things existing out is the closest thing to the Earth which is the moon.

There have been several creatures that do exist on the moon. The first one that is most obvious is the Moon Frog. Even though it is considered bad luck, it is evidence that there are things out there. The next thing that exists on the moon is the Jade Rabbit. According to ancient Chinese folklore, there exists a rabbit on the moon who makes medicine with a mortar and pestle for Immortal People. Now I am not really sure if the rabbits on the moon do make medicine or they all have their own individual mortar and pestle, but there has been a sighting of an actual Moon Rabbit. During the trip of Enkaus Gad Itul to the Moon on his Cleansweep Six to retrieve Moon Frogs, he did say that he did see Moon Rabbits and wanted to capture one, but they were tricky to catch since they can jump twice as far then a normal rabbit. Hopefully we can see one of these Moon Rabbits in the future.

Another creature that has been reported to The Quibbler from space is the Starbird or sometimes called The Seitori. This is an mysterious bird that soars through space. Often mistaken as a flying comment due to it's firey nature and related to the Earth Phoenix, the Seitori has been reported to pass the Earth at least once a year. There was one tale of one visiting the Earth. In 768, according to Japanese Legend, a Seitori visited a village dying from disease and cured all it's civilians.

The last creature that is from space is the Capallspás. Just like it's cousin, the Unicorn on Earth, it has one horn on it's head. The major difference between the Earth Unicorn and the Capallspás is the glowing blue eyes it has. It was first reported in Trestor Sullivan's Novel: Outer Journey: My Adventures on a Cleansweep Seven. He had reported seeing one when traveling to the Moon and said they were vicious creatures when he tried to get near one.

With all these creatures, I do wonder if there are those kind of like us out there. Who knows? It is a vast universe out there you know.

MUSIC OF THE NOW

ARTIST OF THE NOW!

Dominic's Picks of the Month:

THE PARSELMOUTHS

Since 2004, the Parselmouths have been rocking the Wizarding World with their Wrock Music. Founded in Seattle, Washington USA by Kristina Horner and Brittany Vahlberg. They were inspired by a live performance from Harry and the Potters.

Shortly after that, they formed the band and started to record songs about the good life in Slytherin House and being a Parselmouth. In 2006, they did their first gig live and recorded their first self-produced EP called, "Sssss" which is a compilation of everything recorded from 2004 -2006.

After the release of their first EP, they then released another self published album in 2007 called, "Illegal Love Potion" which contains songs like "It's Not Half Bad (Remix)", "I Went With Draco to the Yule Ball", "Love Song for Professor Lupin" and many, many more.

Kristina and Brittany then hired a Gryffindor named Eia Waltzer to be part of the band. In 2008, they then published their third album called, "Pretty In Pink (And Green)". Sadly, Brittany had to leave the band in 2009 due to personal life conflicts.

Eia took over Brittany's spot and both Eia and Kristina continued to go on tour everywhere. The Parselmouths eventually released their fourth album called, "Spattergroit" sometime in 2009. This included a combination of old styles from the previous albums and new ones.

Since then, The Parselmouths continue to tour throughout the US and many Harry Potter conventions all over the nation.

Broken Hearted Slytherins by The Parselmouths

A combination of the first two Parselmouth Albums "Illegal Love Potions" and "Sssss", this is the perfect album that takes all the great songs from both albums and makes it one awesome album to get. It mixes techno, folk, and rock too! I Highly recommend you get this.

Welcome to the House of Awesome by The Whomping Willows

This is the second acoustic album released by The Whomping Willows. It is a very relaxing album and funny album as well. I recommend this album to Potter fans who enjoy Harry Potter and Photosynthesis as well.

Draco and the Malfoys by Draco and the Malfoys

This is the debut self-titled album from Draco and the Malfoys. It is a great album telling the Point of View of Harry Potter's enemy Draco Malfoy. It's full of fun, rock and being evil. I highly recommend this for any Wrock fan out there even if you are not evil.

FRIENDS! by Luna's Ceiling

This debut album from Luna's Ceiling is a great album for anyone who is a techno fan and also a fan of Luna as well. The songs range from Luna's thoughts and personality to other Potter related stories.

Onward and Upward by The Ministry of Magic

This is the third album released by the Ministry of Magic and all I have to say is buy it now. It's that awesome. Recommended for Wrock fans and non Wrock fans of all ages.

SONG ANALYSIS: Slashkilter by Luna's Ceiling

Luna's Ceiling's "Slashkilter" is about the reports of Cornelius Fudge owning a Slashkilter. The beat of the song does differ from most Wizard Rock songs taking a techno type instead of rock or folk. The lyrics of the song do stay true to the Potter Canon and the beat of the song in general is pretty catchy. This would be a recommended song.

THE QUIBBLER

MUSIC REMIND

After winning "Best Album of the Year" Award for 2 years in a row and at the height of their popularity, The O.W.L. officially announced their disbandment. They eventually formed an art foundation called the "O Foundation" and had burned all of their previous discography and earnings for their previous album roughly 735 Million Galleons.

In recent music news, it has been reported by the WWN (Wizarding Wireless Network) that there is a rumor going around that The Weird Sisters might be breaking up anytime soon. This is not to be confused with the tribute band also called The Weird Sisters (They now go under the name The Weird Sisters (Slashblade Kittens) from previous confusion). The rumor started during the recording sessions of The Weird Sister's latest yet to be released album Midnight World where Kirley Duke, lead guitarist, had a little complaint over Orsino Thruston's, drummer, song writing where it was reported that there was not enough guitar in the song. Then it seem to escalated when Gideon Crumb, keyboards, complained about how there wasn't enough or any bagpipes in any of the 12 song album. The Lute Player, Herman Wintringham then threatened to leave the band after a massive argument with Donaghan Tremlett, Bass Player, over what should or should not be edited in any of the songs.

Another report by someone who was helping The Weird Sisters record their album when Cello Player Merton Graves almost got into a fist fight with Heathcote Barbary, the Rythem Guitarist, during the recording of the song "Witchin' Hour" and another feud during the song "You're Magic Smile". When asked about the fist fight and argument during the sessions, Heathcote stated, "None of these thing are true. Stop listening to the Tabloids." When we asked Merton about the incidents, he had no comment.

There is more evidence over further feuds when promoting their first single from the album "Lunar Sky" on WWN, there was some small tension building up between the band members throughout the whole interview. It began when Merton did interrupted Donaghan when he was giving a personal story about his family. Donaghan then said to Merton that it was rude of him to interrupt him during his speech. Herman told both of them to calm down adn just keep moving on with the interview. During the break of the interview, it was reported that Gideon Crumb did storm out of the radio studio after he had a talk with Herman Winstringham.

Later reports said that Gideon did apologize for storming out like he did. He should have kept his cool and stayed calm. Herman did accept his apology. There was also another report where one eyewitness did see the band at a restaurant in Hogsmeade, where he had told us that they were arguing over the Midnight Tour, the tour set to promote the new album. He then said Kirley did throw a glass of water at Orisino's face. The final evidence of that they might break up was another source who had reported that Kirley Duke was going to quit the band in order to start a solo career.

We went to interview Kirley about this and he did give us an honest answer, "Well I was thinking about doing a solo career before. Just to try out something new. I wasn't going to quit the band or anything. Just take a break from it. But then I realized that if I did do a solo career, there would be a chance of breaking the band. So I decided no instead." We then asked him about the arguments of the band. He said, "We argue all the time. It was a normal thing for us. If we didn't argue with each other, the song Magic Works would have not been made. So don't worry about us." This is true, but we can still see tension between the members of the band and the thought of them breaking up might be near. Is The Weird Sisters going to break up? We just have to wait and see for ourselves. Let's all hope that they don't.

WIZARD FACTS & Muggle Fiction

Written By Rolf Scamander ● ● ●

When it comes to unicorns, there are two different sides of what is true about them. There is the Muggle Version of Unicorns and the Wizard Version of Unicorns. Both theories have some similarities, but do have dramatic differences.

We are going to take a look at both of them and see what makes these interpretations different.

Let's start with the Muggle's Version of Unicorns. According to Muggles believe that Unicorns do not exist and are only part of Myths and Fairy Tales. The look of a Unicorn is similar to that of the Wizard version, where it is of a horse with a sharp horn on it's head. The actions of Unicorns do greatly differ from those of the Wizard Version. With the Muggle Version of Unicorns, with the Muggle Version, they are nice and gentle and resemble peace and harmony. There is also a machine-like version of the creature which does baffle me as well.

As for the Wizard versions, according to the creature book, Fantastic Beast and Where to Find Them, Unicorns are considered a level four for the Ministry of Magic rating. This is not because these animals are aggressive and dangerous, but because they should be respected. When born, the unicorn is golden. When around the age of 2 years, the unicorn turns silver and eventually turns pure white. The hooves of a unicorn are golden while the blood of the unicorn is silver. The unicorn's horn, hair, and blood all have magical properties. The hair and horn of a unicorn are used as core for wands making and also the hair can also be used as binding in bandages due it's incredible strength. Blood from a unicorn is used for a person who is near death. The blood of the unicorn is drunk to give a temporary extension to one's life, but with a price by living a cursed life.

Now let's move on to the Muggle stories of Unicorns. Many Muggles have tried to discover Unicorns in the past and even now. There are many tales of these creatures in Muggle fiction and fantasy. The problem for Muggles is that they cannot discover these creatures at all since Unicorns have a charm on them preventing any Muggles from discovering them. Muggles even try to recreate Unicorns by taking a normal horse and sticking a horn on them and considering it a real Unicorn. Sometimes Muggles go even further and take a real Goat horn and surgically implant the horn into a horse. Now this is really wrong of these Muggles. It discusses me to thing that they can do this to a poor innocent creature. Then they display these things at a thing called a circus for show. Maybe that's why Unicorns don't want Muggles to discover them.

There are actual tales from Muggles saying that they discovered a Unicorn in real life. In 1312 in Cork Ireland, a man took a town horse and used a paper shaped horn and attached it to it's head with string. He then displayed the horse to the town's people and the people believed. When the horn fell off of the horse, the towns people were angry at the man since he lied to them. The man was chased out of the town village and was never seen again.

Even Unicorns are considered gentle creatures, there are considered dangerous when provoked or shocked. Recently a boy was attacked by a Unicorn when he was taunting it and poking it with a stick. Eventually, the boy started to throw rocks at the Unicorn's offspring and the Unicorn charged at him with his horn. The boy was severely injured and was rushed to the hospital. In conclusion, Muggle tales of Unicorns could be speculation, but most of them are just fairytales and fantasy

Recently, the WWN has reported that they are missing up to 100K Galleons worth of musical equipment, radios, broadcasting systems, and other devices to make their radio recordings wireless and on the air. There have been many conclusions of what could have happened to all of their equipment, but The Head Editor of Musical Equipment Handling, Nicholas Grewyard has concluded that it must have been Nargles who had done all of this work.

Nicholas, a reader of The Quibbler, says that the only way that the thing can be stolen is if Nargles had taken all of the items. He says that it cannot be done by normal humans since the equipment was nailed down to the floor, it's really heavy to carry, it is magic proof in case it is ever stolen, and none on the locks were opened. We interviewed some of the people at W.W.N. they say that it is stolen from burglars. They suspected it was ether one of their employees since the only way to get access to the items is to be an employee. Nicholas disagrees with this statement saying, "A few days ago, Philip, an employee of W.W.N. had his ID stolen from him when he wasn't looking. I do believe that Nargles did steal his ID as well. It is the only way."

We then interview Phillip about his missing ID. He had said, "Well I was walking to work and then I felt something in my pocket. I reached into my pocket and realized that my ID was missing. I think I was pick-pocketed from me somehow. I just want my ID back. As for the stolen things, i do believe it was an angry customer who really didn't like the music change that we had made recently. But who knows." Maybe it was a customer who was angry? Maybe it was an employee? We wanted to know more from the W.W.N. staff. We had the chance of interviewing two of the actual radio personalities: Glenda Chittock and Tilden Toots.

Glenda Chittock, host of the popular music programme at W.W.N., has stated that many people are telling who might have done it, but she thinks what might have stolen all the equipment. She said, "Well I do believe that it was probably one of our competing radio stations that would have done it. WitchCast, a longtime rival has stated in a recent hidden confession that they are willing to do anything to get W.W.N. off of the radio waves. One of their ideas besides trying to bribe us was to sabotage all of our equipment to force us to quit the radio business. Even though WitchCast is out of business due to the controversy, there are still a few employees who want us to go away."

Tilden Toots, host of the garden show Toot Shoot's Roots, has stated that he has no idea who to believe. He said, "There are so many ideas going around that I'm am going to stay out of all of it until it is over."

It was later reported that Nicholas Grewyard was arrested by the Ministry due to finding all of the evidence being found at his house. He had stated in the court room "I didn't do it! The Nargles brought it here! I am innocent! Please here me out!" Now it seems that everything is pointed to Nicholas, but something doesn't add up. Nicholas was located in Brazil doing a report of rare animals by the time someone had noticed that all the items were missing. The window at Nicholas's house had a small hole cut out of it and the door was broken in. Investigators have also reported that there were strange dust around the items and scenes. They had found tiny finger prints on all of the items. Could it be that Nargles have framed Nicholas and Nicholas has been falsely accused? Currently, Nicholas is having another court case to settle all of this new evidence.

Young Witch Girl Believed to Be Kidnapped By Hags

Written by Yulanda Earheart

Recently, young Abigail Yanters, age 2, has gone missing since her last appearance at the WizCare Daycare. We asked people at the WizCare Daycare if they had noticed anything suspicious. The manager of the Daycare has stated, "Well we saw Abigail walk away with a woman that looked like her mother." We talked with pedestrians who were eyewitness to the kidnapping. One said, "Well the girl was crying, but her mother told us not to worry about it. She was just having a tantrum." Another eyewitness said that he had seen both of them enter Knockturn Alley which was sort of suspicious at the time. We have interviewed the mother of the young girl and she has stated, "Well after I have come from work and went to the daycare to pick up my little princess and they told me that I had already picked her up. Please if anyone has seen my little girl. Please let me know!" There was one other report of a hag carrying a little girl with her. We have suspected that this could be the hag that had kidnapped Abigail from WizCare Daycare.

Hags look like Muggle versions of witches except they are very violent and know Earth Magic. Hags are also shape shifters and are known to have a diet of children and raw liver.

If anyone has seen Abigail Yanters, please let the Ministry of Magic know where you have seen her. We are hoping for the best for Abigail's safety.

Muggle Phones? AND HOW TO USE THEM!

Written by Gumpus Fletcher

With the every growing technology of Muggle devices, using a Muggle Phone of today might be slightly confusing.

If you are planning to buy a Muggle phone to talk to Muggles, I will teach you how to use proper usage or etiquette of the Phone. First of all, we must know what phone that we are using. I will be demonstrating two of them: Chordless and dialup. These are the most common phones that wizard shops will sell for those who want them (since we are still trying to figure out touch based phones.) Now the first rule of using the phone is to pickup the phone. Simple as that. If you are struggling with this step, please contact your local Muggle phone operator through fireplace, crystalball, or by Owlpost. The next step is to know your number that you want to contact. Every single phone is assigned a number. Same goes for your phone. Now if you have forgotten your assigned number, do contact you Wizard Muggle Phone assistant. Now here comes the tricky part, it is entering the assigned number. There are 10 numbers to choose from. With dialup phones, put your finger on the first number and move your finger to the right. Repeat until you have done all the numbers to the assigned number. With chordless phones, you just press the buttons for the numbers and then press the button that either looks like a phone or says "Talk", be sure to press that button. now you are on your way to a full conversation with the person you wanted or don't wanted. If it is not the person, put the phone on the receiver and try again. Now the person answers, remember not to yell through the phone. The person can hear you just well (unless you are angry at them.) Be sure to keep the phone right side up (chord facing down and antenna up). When done, put the phone on the receiver. If you are answering the phone, just pick up the phone if you have a dialphone. For chordless, push the phone/"talk" button. I hope this tutorial is very helpful for your phone!

BOY RAISED BY NARGLES TELLS HIS STORY

WRITTEN BY NARGLES TELLS HIS STORY
BY EDUAPHORA MERGUS

Anthony Marduone seems like another typical 14 year old boy, growing to wizarding school, hanging out with friends, getting to flirt with girls. But what looks like a boy raised by a decent family and a well-mannered boy is not true. Anthony was originally raised by Nargles.

It started after Anthony's birth. He says, "Well I really don't know my past very well. All I know about it is that I was abandoned in a forest near the side of a road. All I can remember was something dragging me towards the tree, but it was very vague." It just so happened to be near Mistletoe infested with Nargles. Usually Nargles are not the gentle type of creatures, but they seem to take Anthony in with them.

I do remember when I was two years old though. They taught me many things like how to walk and communicate with them. Now that I think about it, it was actually kind of weird." The Nargles raised Anthony like one of their own, feeding him, bathing him, and teaching him the values of the Nargles. As Anthony grew older, he was given small tasks like finding food, gathering branches, and finding new places for the Nargles to stay, but eventually they taught him more of what Nargles are best known for.

By the age of 7, Anthony was taught how to steal things like all Nargles do when they get that age. "It was really bizarre and exciting at the same time. We get to sneak up to people wandering through the woods and we will steal anything of value or just anything in general. I do remember stealing from many people from 7 to 9 years old. There was this one time where there was this one couple walking through the woods. They seem just to be enjoying the atmosphere or something. They Nargles told me that they are the ones we will steal from. So I followed them and we hid behind a bush. They told me I was the one to do the job. So I started to sneak on them when they sat down on a couple of rocks. One was a young man with brown hair and very tall and the other one was very strange. She was wearing multi-colored clothing and had very long blonde hair. She did have a cork around her neck I knew why they sent me. It was because of that cork. So when I got close, I reached into her bag and stole a bunch of papers and then I ran. Thankfully they didn't catch me, but they did turn around to see who was there."

At the age of 9, Anthony was discovered by who are now his Stepparents. His father says, "Well my wife and I took the kids out for a walk in the forest like we usually do every Saturday. When we were walking, we heard something in the bushes. My wife said it could just be a Blibbering Humdinger or a Dabberblimp. I knew it wasn't one of those because I knew what they sounded like when walking. I checked through the bushes and found this little boy. He was covered in twigs and mud and had some green type of paint over his body. He hissed at me first, but then he started to cuddle up to me like a cat of sorts. My wife and I took him in as one of our own children and raised him. We always wanted another kid."

Now at the age of 14, Anthony is going to Hogwarts for his fourth year and seems to be the top of his class. Still Anthony does struggle to adjust from Nargle ways to wizard ways. "It's really hard to get use to even though it's been 5 years since they have found me. I can do the spells and charms, but I am still struggling with flying a broomstick. I am always tempted to steal things from stores everywhere I go, but I know I have to resist." Anthony did tell us that he is happy with his family. He did introduce his little brother into Herbology. Anthony does plan to visit his Nargle parents in the near future, but for now he is living the life of a wizard.

WANTING THE VAMPIRE

Written By Penelope Willden

Samantha Quaderstra, famous for her Romance Novels like "Wanting the Werewolf", "Beloved Banshee", "Vampiric Voyage", "Hogwarts Harmony" and many more, now has come out with her latest romance novel "Vampire Valentines" which is going to be her 54th Vampiric Romance Novel. With so many romance novels dedicated toward vampiric love, does this mean that Samantha Quaderstra is a vampire?

Looking at the reviews for all of her novels, her vampire novels seem to be the most popular out of all of them. According to Flourish and Blotts, they seem to be a range of fans from 10 years old to 50 years old. During the opening day for "Vampire Valentines", there was a line from Flourish and Blotts to the Leaky Cauldron. It even through the Leaky Cauldron and exited into the Muggle World. We interviewed one of the eager fans waiting outside the Flourish and Blotts saying, "I am in love with Samantha's Novels, she is a great writer of all time and I can't wait till I go home and start reading it!" We also interviewed her mother, a fan as well. She said "We are actually getting two of them. My daughter she starts reading them, it's really hard for me to have my turn. So one for her and one for me." As Flourish and Blotts have stated, some of these fans have actually been camping outside the store for their copy.

When we actually got into the store, we spoke with Samantha's book manager to have an interview with her. Her manager had stated since this the premiere of her new book, she will be signing books before we can interview her. So after the book signing, Samantha sat down with me and we began our interview. I started with a simple question which was "Out of all of the novels that you have wrote?". She said, "Well there are so many to choose from but out of all of them, it has to be "Vampire Venerate". The love between Edith and Belford is so strong, but they know that they cannot be together." It was an interesting answer since it was one of her vampire novels, but it wasn't enough evidence. My next question was, "Why do you write so many Vampire novels out of all of the romance genres?" She stated "Well I had a fascination with vampires since I was young even though nobody liked them back then. Something about them makes me want to write them like something inside of me calls out to make me write them. So then I wrote my first novel "Vampire Voices" and then it became a instant hit! So I decided to write more Vampiric novels since they became popular and I really love to write them."

My next question was "Do you believe that you write so many Vampire Novels not only because they are popular, but because you might be part Vampire?" She started laughing at the question, but then answered the question, "Well no I am not really sure though. Since I lived with only my mother, I never really knew my father. She really didn't mentioned him often, but always said that he worked at night. So possibly. My mother has passed away so there is no really way of knowing. I highly doubt it though, but it is funny to think about."

Before the interview was over, my last question was "Are there going to be any more Vampire Novels in the future?" She giggled and then said, "Most definitely."

So is Samantha Quaderstra a Vampire in disguise and she doesn't know it? We will probably never know!

MUGGLE ATTACKED BY DOXIES

Written by Eduaphora Mergus

In recent Muggle News, there has been a report of a Muggle being attacked by an "unknown force" in West Brookshire, England. We took a closer look on this Muggle News Case and found out that it was actually Doxies, also known as the biting fairy, attacking the Muggle. According to the reports, the man, Oliver Corstred was just taking a late night stroll one night until out of nowhere; he started feeling heavy-type of hits against his body. He then felt sudden stings as well and noticed bleeding bite marks all over his arms and body. In a panic, he started screaming for help and begging for people to make "the force" go away. He then stated that, people did ignore him because they thought he was crazy. Lucky, Shelton Hartsdale, a young wizard who lives in Brookshire came to his aide and repelled the Doxies with Doxycide, the only known repellent to work on Doxies. After asking if he was ok, he then noticed the bite marks all over his arms and body. Shelton lucky had a bottle of Doxy antidote in his pocket and cured his wounds.

We interviewed Shelton later. He stated, "Well I was walking to the Ministry for late night work and then I saw him being attacked by Doxies. I ran to his aide and pulled out Doxycide. I usually carry one can of repellent and antidote since I have been previously attacked by Doxies in the same area as he was. After the Doxies were gone, I then went over to him to make sure that he was ok. He was seriously injured with many marks all over his body. I noticed that the Doxie venom was leaking from him and he started to react to it. I immediately took out the antidote and started rubbing it on his wounds. In a matter of seconds the venom and the bites were removed. He started to make a full recovery. He thanked me and then we went separate ways."

We then turned to Oliver to ask him about his experience. "Well I was just walking to work and then out of nowhere these invisible things just started attacking me! I think I think I read something in "The Spotter" Magazine where there were invisible creatures attacking people out of nowhere. I think I was attacked by those things. But anyway I was screaming for help and then this man came to my help. He took out this can of stuff and just started spraying the air! It smelled like freshly grounded pepper and it stung my nose but, I was ok. Anyway, he then took out this lotion and just started rubbing my arms with it. It made all the marks from those invisible things disappear. I then thank him. I wanted to ask him questions about what had happened, but he just left. I was slightly confused, but was thankful that the attacks were over.

Oliver Corstred is thankful that the attacks were over and has since continued to go to his work even though he was slightly confused. It was later reported by the Daily Prophet that Oliver Corstred had an Obliviate charm set on him by a Obliviator from the ministry. Currently Oliver has forgotten the events of the Doxie Attack and has continued his normal Muggle life. Shelton is just glad to help someone that was in need.

The Fascinations of Gnome Magic

Written by Xenophilus Lovegood

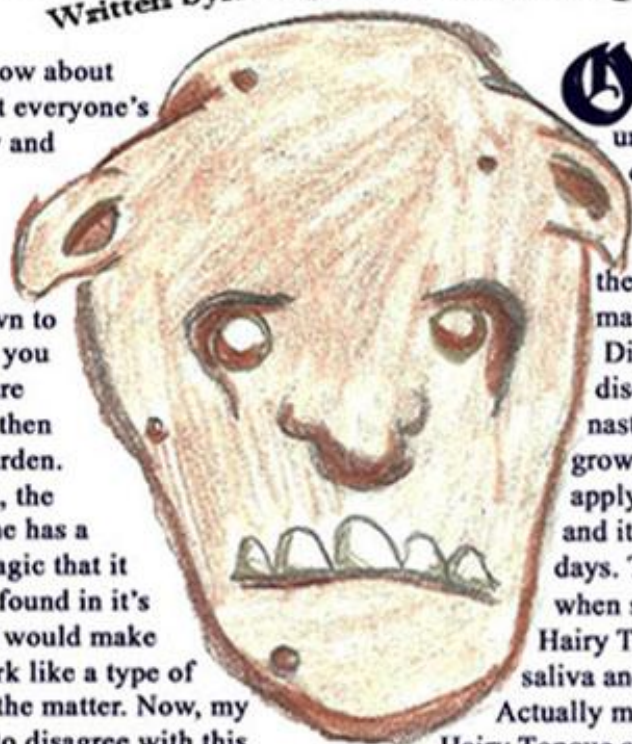

Gnomes: we all know about them. They infest everyone's garden every now and then and can be a real nuisance. What most people don't realize is that Gnomes possess a type of magic only known to a few. I am about to tell you of why these creatures are actually really valuable then just a nuisance of the garden.

First things first, the ordinary gnome has a special type of magic that it actually possesses. It is found in its saliva of the creature. It would make sense since it would work like a type of venom or something of the matter. Now, my Son-In-Law Rolf tends to disagree with this because he says it is nearly impossible to have a type of magic possess in that type of saliva and Gnomes tends to not possess any type of any magic or any special types of traits of any kind.

Muggle's vs. Wizard's

The Muggle version of a Gnome looks like a little man with a beard. It usually wears a red pointed hat and are usually considered friendly and appear on everyone's front lawn for some reason. The Wizard's version of a Gnome looks like a small Potato with legs and arms. These type of Gnome are dangerous and usually ruin many gardens. They also can be decorative and be placed on top of Christmas trees.

paint portraits of Dugbogs, discover new types of Fire Crabs, and say a speech in Mermish. These are only a few unusual things about Gernumbli Magic. Now we will move onto the more beneficial things.

One of the benefits of Gnome magic is that it can cure many unique Wizard diseases. For example, it does cure the Malktus Disease, constant hiccupping from the ears. Just apply the saliva to the ears and in a matter of hours, your Malktus Disease will be cured. Another disease it cures is Troll's Toe, a nasty infection of the toes which grow to the size of a Trolls foot. Just apply the saliva to the toe regularly and it should be cured in a couple of days. The last disease that I know of when studying for Gnome Magic is Hairy Tongue. You actually eat the saliva and it will cure less than an hour. Actually my friend, Gregory did have Hairy Tongue and I told him to take Gnome's Saliva. He did not believe me at first, but the next day, he told me it actually worked. He said it tasted like a mixture of paste and Butterbeer.

There was also a story about a man who was infected by Erklings Eyes, makes your eyes glow yellow and removes your pupils making you temporarily blind, who was bitten by a Gnome after he was infected by the disease and instantly was cured. Once my daughter was bitten by one of these creatures. The next day she was writing poetry on hedgehogs. As you can see, Gnome's Magic does work wonders and does have great and unusual benefits as well. If you are ever bit by one of these creatures, call it a blessing. Who knows what else Gnome's Magic can do?
