

Then she went into the back room and got to work.
 Julia Owl made a decision. "I can fix pancakes," she announced.

"Please," said Mavis.
 "Hurry!" said Brody.
 "Can you make something QUICKLY?" asked Owen.

"We want food!" said Simon Owl.

"We are hungry!" cried Adam Owl.

"While you are waiting for the pancakes, you must help clean the shop so that we will be ready to open at eight," called Julia Owl from the back room.
 Pinka handed each of the owls a cleaning cloth, then joined Julia Owl in the kitchen.

Pinka's First Customers

Once the shop was clean, the owls lined up in a row.

Pinka and Julia Owl served each owl a big pancake on a white plate.

The pancakes were DELICIOUS!

THE END

One fine day, Pinka and Julia Owl arrived at the shop. There were FIVE customers, lined up and ready to come in!

"We have not made any treats yet!" cried Pinka.

"It is six o'clock. The shop does not open until eight o'clock," added Julia Owl.

