

Wind Turbine.

Another system that helps create green energy is the use of wind turbines. Turbines don't have to look like the old farm ones, in fact the one I designed facilitates a cool hang out loft, and an outdoor shed underneath. Wind direction and any physical barriers should be considered, but for the most part the turbines will take wind from any direction.